WILSON AWAITS DIRECT ANSWER FROM CARRANZA

Ignores Reply From De Facto Foreign Office; More of Watchful Waiting

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1.—With a "memorandum reply" in hand from the Mexican foreign office, charging the United States with bad faith and reiterating the Mexican position regarding presence of American troops in Mexico, the administration awaits a direct answer from Carranza himself. It is announced that President Wilson will wait at least until next Wednesday for such a reply.

If an unsatisfactory reply comes, however, at any time, the president will act promptly, it is believed. Should Carranza, in his response as de facto president, follow the lines of the memorandum which his foreign office transmitted to Washington today, Wilson probably will proceed with warlike measures.

Among the offers sent in are some from owners and operators of aeroplanes, who would like to serve with the volunteer division which the colonel was yesterday reported as likely to organize.

The steamer Burnside caught fire but was pulled away from the wharf and saved with slight damage. Tells Press Club Ready to Sacrifice Political Aspirations for His Convictions

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) NEW YORK, N. Y., July 1.—President Wilson, addressing the New York Press Club last night, emphatically reaffirmed his intention to avoid war with Mexico if it was possible to do so. He went so far as to say that he would not have war with the southern border country "until there was no other alternative."

"I am willing," said the president, "to sacrifice my political fortunes if necessary to carry out my convictions. I shall carry out, regardless of all assaults, the policy of keeping the peace with our southern neighbor if it is possible."

The president asked his audience if the interests of America would be advanced by a war for the conquest of Mexico. He was answered by shouts of "No."
